

At Home with a Patriotic Flair

DRESSING OUR BUNGALOW IN RED, WHITE & BLUE

LIVING OUTDOORS (Left & Below) These five photos share the front and back of our cottage. My husband hangs a huge American flag given to him by Senator Warren G. Magnusson on Memorial Day, July 4th and Labor Day. Between putting in the garden and barbecuing for friends in the back yard, it seems like we are ALWAYS outside.

THE LIVING/DINING ROOM SUITE (Right and Center) Summer brings out lots of "Old Glories" and Uncle Sam. Red, white and blue flowers grace the mantle. The coffee table holds an antique wrought iron Uncle Sam bank and books on our national parks, camps, cabins, vintage boats and more. The whimsical candles on the dining room table were a rare find at an antique store in Snohomish, Washington.

MASTER BEDROOM SUITE (Above) Our bedroom looks through the sitting room French doors to the gardens beyond. The suite receives lots of morning sunshine - making it the perfect place to start the day.

PITTYPAT GALLERY & STUDIO (Above) PittyPat Gallery features 50+ works that revolve with the seasons and mirrors pieces on my web site. In addition to portraits of local landmarks, these scenes feature families picnicking, biking, enjoying their lake cabins and more. My studio overlooks the back yard and is a cheerful place to create.

KITCHEN/BREAKFAST NOOK (Left) The kitchen is filled with flowers and has a vintage bicycle theme. The windows and breakfast nook are dressed in cushions, bolsters and valances created from Liz Claiborne's "Wild Flowers" sheets. The breakfast nook overlooks the back garden - lovely in the morning!

THE GUEST SUITE/"MAN ROOM" (Above) This hospitable, roomy lower level suite houses a bedroom, bath with a shower and a family room. It's perfect for visiting guests who want to visit and take advantage of the wonderful parks and golf courses Spokane has to offer. Like my art studio, it has an egress window that keeps it light and bright.
