

At Home with Spring's Colorful Palette

PAINTING OUR COTTAGE IN SOFT PASTELS AND FLORALS TO CELEBRATE SPRING!

HOUSE & ENTRYWAY (Below) A bunny with his lantern welcomes guests on the porch while pastel blossoms march up the gardens that frame our front walkway.

THE LIVING/DINING ROOM SUITE These rooms are dressed for the season with April Cornell's pastel Linens - the setting accented by ceramic bunnies, birds, candles and bunches of fresh, fragrant tulips. The message is "WELCOME SPRING."

KITCHEN/BREAKFAST NOOK The kitchen suite gets a change-out of colors with the seasons - and it always lifts my heart to bring out Liz Claiborne's sweet wild-flower printed chintz in this area of the house that overlooks the back gardens.

MASTER BEDROOM/SITTING ROOM The sitting room off our bedroom is Kitty Sophie's favorite place. She keeps an eye on her world and savors all the morning sunshine.

GOLF-THEMED OFFICE/DEN My husband Doug's passion is golf, so this room has with lots of memorabilia. To the far right is an armoire that houses a self-contained "office" for him.

MY ART STUDIO This generous space in the basement is blessed with an egress window overlooking the garden. Shelves house my art books and the drawers store everything I need for creating!

THE GUEST SUITE This hospitable, roomy suite houses a bedroom, full bath and a family room that is perfect for visiting guests who want to stay awhile and take advantage of the wonderful parks and golf courses that Spokane has to offer. Like my studio, it has an egress window that keeps it light and bright, even though it's on the lower level.
